

Accessible Family Activities in PA

- Sensory Story Time
  - Coyle Free Library (Chambersburg, PA)
  - York County Public Libraries (York, PA)
  - Lancaster County Public Libraries (Lancaster, PA)
  - New Cumberland Public Library (New Cumberland, PA)
  - Dillsburg Area Library (Dillsburg, PA)
  - Amelia Givin Library (Mt. Holly Springs, PA)
- Penn Museum (Philadelphia, PA)
  - Family access program – Archaeology in the A.M.
    - Designed for teens and young adults with developmental or intellectual disabilities
- The Colonial Theatre (Phoenixville, PA)
  - Sensory friendly movie screenings
    - Use of dimmed lights, reduced volume, and “no talking” rule is not enforced
- Crayola Experience (Easton, PA)
  - Sensory night
    - 25 hands-on attractions in a quiet environment (no music)
- Elmwood Park Zoo (Norristown, PA)
  - Certified autism center
    - First zoo in the world to earn certification as a certified autism center
    - Offer morning access and other sensory sensitive events
- Millersville University Visual & Performing Arts (Lancaster/Millersville, PA)
  - Offer a variety of accessible performances during the academic year
- Fulton Theatre (Lancaster, PA)
  - Supports and resources for young people with special needs offered at all Family Series Productions

- Pacing area available in lobby with TV monitors to view play
- Social stories and other resources available for participants
- Hershey's Chocolate World (Hershey, PA)
  - Sensory friendly night
    - Free tour ride with reduced audio, caregiver companion pass for Create Your Own Candy Bar, and 4D show is modified into three levels for sensory sensitivities
- Please Touch Museum (Philadelphia, PA)
  - Play without boundaries
    - Early opening that provides reduced crowds and lighting, along with less noise
    - Quiet kit sensory toys, program room art activities and theater performance

Do you have a resource suggestion or update for this list? Email communications@vistaautismservices.org.

Updated 4/11/23

Unique Potential
Within Reach

1021 Springboard Drive
Hershey, PA 17033

717.583.5102